Timothy “Brian” Rogers

Brian Rogers is an Organization Development Specialist assigned to the Organization & Leadership Development Office (HS10) at the Marshall Space Flight Center (MSFC). His focus is on Organization Development and Client Interventions both internal and external to the Office of Human Capital (OHC).

Mr. Rogers began his career at MSFC in May 2006 as a government contractor working for AI Signal Research Inc. (ASRI). Since beginning his career at MSFC, Mr. Rogers has worked on several interventions internally and externally, facilitated an offsite for several members of OHC, and started working toward gaining his Black Belt Certification in Lean Six Sigma. He has successfully completed his Green Belt training with Black Belt training and certification to take place in October and November of this year. Mr. Rogers is looking forward to putting this new tool set to work. Prior to his work at NASA MSFC, Mr. Rogers has 7 years of management experience in private industry. He has a wide array of experience from his management career. Some of his most notable skills are his team building skills, knowledge of continuous improvement processes, and people skills.

Mr. Rogers graduated from Giles County High School in Pulaski, TN in 1995. From there, he attended the University of North Alabama in Florence, AL. Brian received his Bachelors of Science in Human Resources and Organization Management in 1999. Brian began his career in management shortly there after.

Brian and his wife, Julie, reside in Minor Hill, TN. He has a younger brother, Keith, who is the Southeast Regional Planner for Fresh Express in Morrow, GA. Keith and his wife, Ashley, reside in Stockbridge, GA. He is the son of Tony and Debbie Rogers also of Minor Hill. Brian has a wide variety of hobbies which include woodworking, hunting, fishing, spending time with family and friends, playing men's and coed slow pitch softball, and watching Tennessee football. Brian summed it up best when he said that his hobbies are anything that will get him out of the house! He and his father both enjoy raising beef cattle on their farms in Minor Hill and Elkton, TN.
